'WHEREAS the permitting the Importation of salted Beef, Pork and Butter, from Ireland, into this Kingdom, hath been found useful and beneficial; and that the Time allowed for that Purpose is near expiring, and it is expedient that the same should be prolonged:' May it therefore please your most Excellent Majesty, that it may be enacted; and be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, that an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to permit the Importation of salted Beef, Pork and Butter, from Ireland, for a limited Time, which was to continue in Force for the Term of six Months, from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, shall be, and the same is hereby further continued from the Expiration thereof, until the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine; except only with respect to such Parts thereof relating to the Payment of the Duty, and to the recovering of Penalties, as are amended or otherwise provided for by this Act.

further continued to 24 Dec. 1759.

'II. And whereas Doubts have arisen whether all Kinds of salted Pork and Hog Meat may be imported from Ireland, by virtue of the above recited Act;' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said Act does and shall extend, and shall be deemed, construed and taken to extend, to all Kinds of salted Pork and Hog Meat imported or to be imported, into Great Britain from Ireland, during the Continuance of the said Act.

All Kinds of salted Pork and Hog Meat, may be imported.

'III. And whereas the Duty or Imposition of one Shilling and three Pence charged and directed by the said Act to be laid on every hundred Weight of salted Beef or Pork so to be imported from Ireland as aforesaid, is not adequate to, but falls short of, the Duty laid upon, and payable for, such Quantity of Salt as is requisite and necessary to be used in curing and salting the same: And whereas the salted Beef and Pork imported into this Kingdom from Ireland, is generally packed up and contained in Casks, with the Pickle or Brine proper for preserving the same; and the opening the said Casks, in order to ascertain the Net Weight of the Beef and Pork liable to the said Duties on Importation, would not only be very expensive to the Revenue, but also a great Detriment and Loss to the said Provisions, and the Owner and Importer of the same; and that it would be more for the Benefit and Advantage of the Revenue, and also of such Owner and Importer, that the Rates and Duties to be paid upon the Importation of such Beef and Pork, should be ascertained by, and laid upon, every Barrel of the said Commodities so to be imported, according to the Rate and Proportion herein after mentioned;' Therefore be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, and during the Continuance of this Act, there shall be paid for every Barrel or Cask of salted Beef or Pork so imported as aforesaid, containing thirty-two Gallons, to the proper Officer appointed by the said former Act, the Sum of three Shillings and four Pence, as and for Custom or Duty for, on or in respect thereof; and so in Proportion for any greater or lesser Quantity thereof: And for every hundred Weight of salted Beef, called Dried Beef, or Dried Neats Tongues, or Dried Hog Meat so imported, the Sum of one Shilling and three Pence, and so in Proportion for every greater or lesser Quantity thereof, as and for Custom or Duty for, on or in respect thereof.

Beef or Pork, if in Pickle, to pay 3 s. 4 d. per Barrel Duty;

if dried 1 s. 3 d. per Hundred Weight;

IV. And it is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person shall after the said twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, during the Continuance of this Act, land any such salted Beef, Pork or Butter, or any salted Beef called Dried Beef, or Dried Neats Tongues, or Dried Hog Meat, imported from Ireland as aforesaid, before Payment of the Duty laid or directed by this Act, the same, together with the Casks, Vessels and Package, containing the same, shall be forfeited and lost; and the Importer or Proprietor of the said Commodities shall also forfeit and pay the Sum of twenty Shillings for every Barrel of such salted Beef, Pork or Butter, and for every hundred Weight of such salted Beef, called Dried Beef, or Dried Neats Tongues, or Dried Hogs Meat, so imported and landed as aforesaid, and so in Proportion for every greater or lesser Quantity thereof; and that it shall and may be lawful to and for any Person or Persons (being an Officer of the Customs, or of his Majesty's Duties upon Salt) to take and seize all such Commodities as shall be imported and landed, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of this if landed without Duty paid, to be forfeited, with the Package; and Importer also to pay 20 s. per Barrel, or Hundred Weight.

Officer of Customs, or Salt Duties, may seize the same.

and

nd the former Act; and that all Penalties and Forfeitures inflicted and directed to be levied by this Act, shall be distributed in Manner as by the said former Act, and may be recovered either by the Ways and Means directed and appointed by the said former Act, or may be sued for, recovered and mitigated, by any of the Laws of and relating to the Excise. Forfeitures to be distributed, and recovered, as by the former Act.

Clerk of the Silver Office to enter and mark the Fines.

Fines not valid until ſtampt and marked with the Poſt Fine.

'III. And whereas no Preſine is payable on any Writ of Covenant where the Lands and Tene-'ments contained therein are under the yearly Value of five Marks; but a certain Sum of ſix Shil-'lings and eight Pence hath been antiently ſet and payable to the Crown on every ſuch Writ of 'Covenant, as and for the King's Licence being granted to the Parties in ſuch Writ of Covenant 'named to accord;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Trinity Term, in all Caſes where no Preſine ſhall be payable on any Writ of Covenant, the Officer or Officers at the ſaid Alienation Office, whoſe Duty it is to ſet and indorſe the Preſine on every Writ of Covenant on which a Preſine is payable, ſhall ſet on every Writ of Covenant brought to the ſaid Alienation Office, on which no Preſine ſhall be payable, a Poſt Fine of ſix Shillings and eight Pence, as hath been antiently uſually put, at the ſaid King's Silver Office, on every Writ of Covenant on which no Preſine was payable; and ſhall indorſe ſuch Poſt Fine of ſix Shillings and eight Pence on every ſuch Writ of Covenant, together with his or their Name or Names, and Mark of Office, in the like Manner as it hath been uſual to indorſe ſuch Writs of Covenant at the ſaid Alienation Office; and every ſuch Poſt Fine of ſix Shillings and eight Pence ſhall be paid to the ſaid Receiver of the ſaid Alienation Office, before the Writ of Covenant on which no Preſine is payable ſhall be paſſed at the ſaid Alienation Office; and the ſaid Receiver, on Payment of the ſaid ſix Shillings and eight Pence, ſhall indorſe on and mark every ſuch Writ of Covenant, in like Manner as other Writs of Covenant are by this Act before directed to be indorſed and marked by ſuch ſaid Receiver.

and indorſe the ſame, with his Name and Mark of Office.

The ſaid Sum of 6s. 8d. to be paid before the Writ paſs the Alienation Office.

IV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforeſaid, That the Officer or Clerk of the King's Silver Office, or his Deputy, from and after the ſaid firſt Day of Trinity Term one thouſand ſeven hundred and fifty-nine, ſhall not receive any Writ or Writs of Covenant, unleſs it ſhall appear by the Mark and Indorſement of ſuch Receiver as aforeſaid, that the Poſt Fine has been paid thereon.

Clerk of the Silver Office to receive no Writ where the Poſt Fine has not been paid.

V. Provided nevertheleſs, That if after the Payment of ſuch Poſt Fine or Poſt Fines as aforeſaid, the ſaid Writ or Writs of Covenant ſhall, by the Death of any of the Parties named therein, or for any other Cauſe whatſoever, be prevented or hindered from paſſing through the ſeveral other Offices, ſo as the ſaid Fine or Fines is or are not, or cannot be compleated; that then and in every ſuch Caſe, the ſaid Receiver ſhall repay to the Cognizee or Cognizees, in every ſuch Writ or Writs of Covenant, his, her or their Attorney or Agent, on their producing and filing with him the ſaid Writ or Writs of Covenant, all and every ſuch Sum and Sums of Money as ſhall have been before by him received thereon as and for the Poſt Fine or Poſt Fines; and ſuch Writ or Writs of Covenant ſo remaining filed with ſuch Receiver, ſhall be and is hereby declared to be a ſufficient Diſcharge to ſuch Receiver, for ſuch Sum or Sums of Money as he ſhall ſo repay as aforeſaid.

and applied for and towards making good the Supply granted to his Majesty for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine; and the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, are hereby authorized and impowered to issue and apply the same accordingly.

A further Sum not exceeding 2,250,000 l. to be issued and applied out of the growing Produce of the said Fund, towards the said Supply.

II. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That by or out of such Monies as shall thereafter, from Time to Time, be and remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer, of the Surplusses, Exceſſes, Overplus Monies, and other Revenues composing the said Fund commonly called The Sinking Fund, after paying or reserving sufficient to pay all such Sums of Money as have been directed by any former Act or Acts of Parliament to be paid out of the same, there shall and may, in like Manner, be issued and applied a further Sum not exceeding two millions two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, for and towards the said Supply.

Surplus remaining of the Sum of 100,000 l. granted in the last Session towards defraying the Charge of Pay and Cloathing of the Militia; as also the Sum of 73,308 l. 3 s. 10 d. 1 q. Overplus of the Grants for the Year 1758; with the Sum of 100,000 l. repaid into the Exchequer, being the Sum voted to the Empress of Russia in the Year 1755, to be issued and applied towards the said Supply.

III. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That such Part of the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds granted to his Majesty in the last Session of Parliament, upon Account, towards defraying the Charge of Pay and Cloathing for the Militia for the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight, and for defraying such Expences as were actually incurred upon the Account of the Militia in the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-seven, as shall remain in the Receipt of the Exchequer after Satisfaction of the said Charges and Expences; and also the Sum of seventy-three thousand three hundred eight Pounds three Shillings and ten Pence Farthing, now remaining in the Exchequer, being the Overplus of the Grants for the Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-eight; and also the Sum of one hundred thousand Pounds repaid into the Receipt of the Exchequer, and now remaining there, being the same Sum which was granted to his Majesty by a Vote of this House of the fifteenth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-five, to enable his Majesty to make good his Engagements with the Empress of Russia, shall and may be, in like Manner, issued and applied, at the said Receipt, for and towards the said Supply.

In case of Want of Money for carrying on the current Service, the Treasury may borrow a Sum to make good such Deficiency, upon the Credit of the growing Produce of the said Fund; notwithstanding the Act of 5 & 6 W. & M.

Bank may advance thereon any Sum not exceeding 2,250,000 l.

IV. And whereas it may so happen that there may be a Want of Money for carrying on the current Service of the Year one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, before Monies sufficient may have arisen into the Exchequer, from the said Surplusses, Exceſſes or Overplus Monies, commonly called The Sinking Fund, to satisfy and pay the said Sum of two millions two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, by this Act granted; in such Case it shall and may be lawful to and for the said Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, or any three or more of them now being, or the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of the Treasury for the Time being, by Warrant or Warrants under his or their Hands, to permit and suffer any Person or Persons, or Body or Bodies Politick or Corporate, to advance and lend unto his Majesty at the Receipt of his Exchequer, so much Money as, together with the Monies then remaining in the said Exchequer of the said Surplusses, Exceſſes or Overplus Monies, shall be wanting to complete the said Sum of two millions two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds, upon Credit of the growing Produce of the said Surplusses, Exceſſes or Overplus Monies, and to be repaid out of the same as they shall quarterly afterwards arise, together with Interest for the Forbearance thereof in the mean Time; and it shall and may be lawful for the Governor and Company of the Bank of England, to advance or lend to his Majesty in like Manner, at the Receipt of the Exchequer, upon the Credit of Loan granted by this Act, any Sum or Sums of Money not exceeding in the whole the Sum of two millions two hundred and fifty thousand Pounds; any Thing in an Act made in the fifth and sixth Years of the Reign of King William and Queen Mary, intituled, An Act for granting to their Majesties several Rates and Duties upon Tonnage of Ships and Vessels, and upon Beer, Ale and other Liquors, for securing certain Recompences and Advantages in the said Act mentioned, to such Persons as shall voluntarily advance the Sum of one million five hundred thousand Pounds, towards carrying on the War against France, to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

'V. 'Bond; and the said Samuel Taylor, after having used all the Means in his Power to discharge the 'said Debt, is become insolvent;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the High Treasurer, or any three or more of the Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, for the Time being, and he or they is or are hereby authorized and impowered to exonerate, acquit and discharge the said Samuel Taylor, from any Penalty mentioned in, and the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money conditioned to be paid by, the said Bond, and all Interest due thereupon, and all Costs and Expences which he is liable to pay in respect of any Process or Proceeding for the Recovery of such Monies, and to discharge and vacate the said Bond, and to set the said Samuel Taylor at Liberty, in such Manner as to the said High Treasurer, or Commissioners of the Treasury, shall seem expedient; any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding.

Copy of the Complaint to be given to the Person complained against, and to be determined in a summary Way.

'V. And whereas the Profits of several Offices and Employments in Great Britain arise in the 'Whole, or in Part, from Perquisites which are due and payable in the Course of Office; And it 'is therefore, by the said Act of the thirty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign enacted, That 'such Part of the Sums of Money thereby granted as are payable for or in respect of the Profits of 'any Office or Employment in any Part of England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, which arise from 'such Perquisites, shall be computed, raised, levied and paid according to the annual Value at which 'such Profits stood valued and rated to the last Assessment to the Land Tax; with a Proviso, That 'such Profits arising from such Perquisites as aforesaid, should be deemed and taken to have been va'lued and rated in such last Assessment to the Land Tax, at so much only as the entire Sum at which 'any such Office was valued and rated in the said Assessment should exceed the Amount of the Sala'ries, Wages and Fees, payable as aforesaid in respect of the same Office: And whereas, for the bet'ter rating, ordering, levying, and collecting of the Duty by the said Act charged upon such Perqui'sites of such of the said Offices and Employments, as are in that Part of Great Britain called Eng'land*, Wales, and Berwick upon Tweed, the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the Time being 'are thereby authorized and required to ascertain, and set down in Writing, the Amount of the

'Duty of one Shilling in the Pound, to be paid in pursuance of the said Act by all Commissioners 'and other Officers, their Clerks, Agents, Secondaries, Substitutes, and other inferior Ministers 'and Persons whatsoever, having, using, or exercising, any of the said Offices or Employments, 'the Salaries, Wages, Fees, and Perquisites whereof exceed the Value of one hundred Pounds per 'Annum, within their respective Hundreds, Laths, Wapentakes, Rapes, Wards, or other Divisions, 'in Proportion to the annual Value at which the Profits of such Offices or Employments respectively 'stood valued and rated in the last Assessment to the Land Tax for the said respective Hundreds and 'Divisions respectively: And whereas it hath been found that in Consequence of the said before 'recited Limitations put by the said Act upon the rating, valuing and assessing of the Profits of Of- 'fices and Employments arising from Perquisites due and payable in the Course of Office, the said 'Offices and Employments have not contributed in equal Proportion with those whereof the Profits 'arise from Salaries, Fees and Wages payable by the Crown;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners of the Land Tax for the Time being shall fix and ascertain according to their best Judgment and Discretion the Sum Total or Amount of the Perquisites arising from each and every Office within their respective Districts, distinct from the Salary, Fees and Wages thereunto belonging, which are to be deducted under the said Act, and independently of any former Valuation or Assessment of the same to the Land Tax; and shall rate and assess all such of the said Offices and Employments, whereof the Perquisites shall be found to exceed one hundred Pounds a Year, at one Shilling for every twenty Shillings arising by the said Offices and Employments.

The Perquisites of Office to be ascertained by the Commissioners of the Land Tax, distinct from the Salary, and independent of any former Valuation.

Offices, &c. where the Perquisites exceed 100*l.* to be rated 1*s.* in the Pound.

VI. And, to the End that the Duty of one Shilling in the Pound may be paid upon all Offices and Employments whereof the Salary, Fees and Wages, together with the Perquisites, shall exceed one hundred Pounds a Year; It is hereby further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Receiver or Receivers to be appointed by virtue of this Act, shall transmit to the Commissioners of the Land Tax in every District where any Office or Employment is to be assessed, an Account of all such Offices and Employments, whereof the Fees, Wages and Salaries do not exceed one hundred Pounds a Year; and if the said Commissioners of the Land Tax shall find the Perquisites arising from the said Office, with the Salary, Fees and Wages of the same, as certified by such Receiver or Receivers, to exceed together the Amount of one hundred Pounds a Year, then the said Commissioners are to rate and assess such Office and Employment, and to cause the Duty of one Shilling in the Pound to be levied and collected thereon.

Receivers to transmit to the Commissioners of the Land Tax, an Account of all such Offices, &c. the Fees and Salaries whereof do not exceed 100*l.* per Annum; and such as together shall be found to exceed 100*l.* per Annum are to be charged with the Duty of 1*s.* in the Pound.

VII. Provided nevertheless, That in all future Assessments to the Land Tax, the said Offices and Employments shall not be valued or assessed at any higher Rates than those whereat the same Offices and Employments were respectively assessed and rated towards the Land Tax imposed by an Act made in the thirty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign; any thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

In future Assessments to the Land Tax, Offices not to be rated higher than they were in 31 Geo. 2.

VIII. And, to prevent any Doubts which might arise concerning the Meaning of the Word Perquisites, in the said Act, and in this present Act mentioned; Be it declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the same shall for the Purposes of the said Act, and likewise of this present Act, be construed, deemed and taken as and for such Profits of Offices and Employments in Great Britain, as arise from Fees established by Custom or Authority, and payable either by the Crown or the Subjects, in Consideration of Business done from time to time in the Course of executing such Offices and Employments.

Meaning of the Word Perquisites ascertained.

'IX. And whereas in and by the said Act it is provided, That no Commissioner of the Land Tax 'in England, Wales, or Berwick upon Tweed, or Commissioner of Supply in Scotland, who shall be 'possessed of any Office or Employment subject and liable to the Duty thereby imposed, shall sit, or 'act, or any Way's interfere, in rating his own Office or Employment, but shall withdraw until 'the Rating thereof be settled and determined by the rest of the Commissioners then present: And 'whereas a Doubt hath arisen whether any Commissioner possessed of any such Office or Employ- 'ment, can sit or act, or any Ways interfere in the Execution of the said Act, in regard that the 'Commissioners of the Land Tax are thereby constituted the Assessors, and that the making and 'signing any Assessment to be made in pursuance of the said Act by any Commissioner possessed of 'any Office or Employment, might be deemed and taken to be sitting, acting, or interfering, in the 'rating of his own Office or Employment, although such Commissioner had withdrawn, until the 'rating of his Office was settled and determined;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That nothing in this or in the said in Part recited Act contained, shall be deemed or construed to extend to any such Commissioner, for or in respect of his making or signing any Assessment made, or to be made, in pursuance of the said in Part recited Act, or of this Act; provided such Commissioner shall have withdrawn, or shall withdraw, until the rating of his Own Office or Employment shall have been, or shall be, settled or determined.

Commissioners of the Land Tax not liable to Penalties for acting in the Cases here mentioned, provided they withdraw during the rating of their respective Employments.

X. Provided also, That the Duty of one Shilling in the Pound charged by the said Act made in the thirty-first Year of his present Majesty's Reign upon Pensions and Gratuities, shall not for the future be charged on or payable out of such Pensions or Gratuities, which his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors shall be pleased to declare in the Warrant, Order or other Instrument directing Payment thereof, to be intended as charitable Donations; any thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Charitable Donations exempted from Duties;

XI. Provided

as also Officers of the Army, and the Hospitals;

XI. Provided also, That nothing in the said Act contained shall extend, or be construed to extend, to the charging of the said Duty upon any Military Officers serving on the Staff, or belonging to any of his Majesty's Garrisons, Regiments, Troops, Companies, the Royal Hospital of Chelsea, or the Hospitals of the Army; any thing to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

and the Pensions, Annuities and Rents, &c. granted in Fee or Fee-tail, &c. by former King's and Queens of England;

XII. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the said recited Act passed in the thirty-first Year of his Majesty's Reign, or this Act, or any thing therein or herein contained, shall not charge, or be construed, deemed, or taken to charge, any Pension, Annuity, yearly Payment, Rent or Sum issuing out of or charged upon any Revenues belonging to his Majesty in Great Britain, that have been by his Majesty's Royal Predecessors, King's or Queens of England, or by Act of Parliament, granted unto any Person or Persons in Fee or Fee-tail, or till redeemed by Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money mentioned in any Grant or Act of Parliament, with the said Duty or Payment in the said recited Act of one Shilling out of every twenty Shillings thereof by the Year, but that such Pensions, Annuities, yearly Payments, Rents, or Sums, shall be acquitted and discharged of, from, and against the said Duty, as if the said recited Act had never been made; any thing therein or herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

'XII. And whereas by an Act of Parliament passed in the twelfth Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement and Increasing of Shipping and Navigation, it was, amongst other Things, enacted, That no goods or Commodities of foreign Growth, Production or Manufacture, and which should be brought into England, Ireland, Wales, the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, in English built Shipping, or other Shipping, as therein before mentioned, should be shipped or brought from any other Place or Places, Country or Countries, but only from those of the said Growth, Production, or Manufacture, or from those Ports where the said Goods or Commodities could only or usually had been first shipped for Transportation, and from none other Places or Countries, under the Penalty of the Forfeiture of all such Goods as should be imported from any other Place or Country, contrary to the true Intent and Meaning of the said Act, as also of the Ship in which the same were imported, with all her Guns, Furniture, Ammunition, Tackle and Apparel; one Moiety to his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, and the other Moiety to him or them that should seize, inform, or sue for the same, in any Court of Record, to be recovered as in the said Act is expressed: And it was by the same Act provided, That the said Act, or any Thing therein contained, should not extend or be meant to restrain and prohibit the Importation of any of the Commodities of the Streights or Levant Seas loaded in English built Shipping, and whereof the Master and three Fourths of the Mariners at least, were English, from the usual Ports or Places for Loading of such Commodities theretofore, within the said Streights or Levant Seas, though the same were not of the very Growth of the said Places: And whereas by another Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of the Reign of his late Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the prohibiting of the Importation of Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn of the Product or Manufacture of Asia, from any Ports or Places in the Streights or Levant Seas, except such Ports and Places as are within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior; after reciting the aforesaid Clause, and also the aforesaid Proviso in the said Act of the twelfth Year of the Reign of said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, herein before recited, and also reciting that the Woollen Manufacture in France had since that Time been greatly increased, and very large Quantities of such Goods were then annually imported from thence to Turkey, in return whereof, were brought from thence Raw Silk, and other Commodities, to Marseilles and other Ports in France, great Quantities whereof were carried into Italy, and from thence imported into Great Britain, in English Shipping, greatly to the Discouragement of the Woollen Manufactures of Great Britain, and the Advancement thereof in France, and that without some speedy Care therein, the British Trade to Turkey would be daily lessened, and was in Danger of being lost; it was by the said Act enacted, from from and after the twenty-ninth Day of September one thousand seven hundred and twenty, the said recited Clause or Proviso, as to the Importation of Raw Silk and Mohair Yarn of the Product or Manufacture of Asia, should be, and was thereby repealed, excepting only as to the Ports and Places in the said Streights or Levant Seas, which were within the Dominions of the Grand Seignior: And whereas by another Act of Parliament passed in the thirteenth and fourteenth Years of the Reign of his said late Majesty King CHARLES the Second, intituled, An Act for preventing Frauds, and regulating Abuses, in his Majesty's Customs; reciting, that there were great Practices and Combinations between the Importers and Owners of Goods and Merchandizes, and the Seizers and Informers, with Design and Intent to defraud the Force of the Law and his Majesty of his Duties and Customs, It was enacted, That no Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares or Merchandizes, should be seized as forfeited, for or by reason of unlawful Importation or Exportation, into or out of this Kingdom of England, Dominion of Wales, or Port and Town of Berwick, but by the Person or Persons who were or should be appointed by his Majesty to manage his Customs, or Officers of his Majesty's Customs for the Time being, or such other Person or Persons as should be deputed and authorized thereunto, by Warrant from the Lord Treasurer, or Under Treasurer, or by Special Commission from his Majesty under the Great or Privy Seal; and if any Seizure should thereafter be made by any other Person or Persons whatsoever, for any the Causes therein before mentioned, such Seizure should be void and of none Effect: And whereas great Quantities of raw Silk of the Product or Manufacture of Asia have 'been imported into this Kingdom, under various Denominations and Pretences, from Leghorn, 'and other Ports and Places from whence the same may not be lawfully imported into England, 'contrary to the said Acts prohibiting the same, and to the great Prejudice of the Trade of this 'Kingdom:' Now for the more effectually preventing such illegal Practices for the future, Be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in case any Raw Silk or Mohair Yarn, or any Ship or Vessel bringing the same into England, Ireland, Wales, the Islands of Guernsey or Jersey, or Town of Berwick upon Tweed, at any Time from and after the passing of this Act, shall be seized, as forfeited by virtue of all or any of the said herein before in Part recited Acts of Parliament, then and in any such Case, it shall not be lawful for any Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons who shall make such Seizure, to release or abandon the same, or delay or omit to proceed to Judgment for the Condemnation thereof, as the Law in that Behalf directs, without first acquainting the Governor, Deputy Governor, Treasurer, or Husband, of the said Company, or their Successors, or their known Secretary for the Time being, by Writing, of his or their Intentions to relinquish or abandon such Seizure; and such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, shall at the same Time deliver to the said Governor, Deputy Governor, Treasurer, Husband, or Secretary of the said Company, or of their Successors, a Copy of the Schedule of such Seizure: And in case the said Governor and Company, or any Committee thereof, shall within seven Days after such Notice, give Bond, or offer to give Bond, under the Common Seal of their Corporation, in the penal Sum of one thousand Pounds, with Condition thereunder written for indemnifying and saving harmless such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons, of, from and against all Costs of Suit, Charges, Damages and Expences, which such Officer or Officers, or other Person or Persons shall be necessarily put to, or may pay or sustain, in case such Ship, Vessel or Goods so seized, shall not be adjudged, upon the Trial or Hearing concerning the Condemnation thereof, to have been forfeited; that then such Officer, or other Person or Persons, shall not voluntarily abandon or relinquish such Seizure, or omit to commence or bring, nor discontinue any Proceedings commenced for the Condemnation of such Ship, Vessel or Goods, without the Consent of the said Company, or some Committee thereof; but shall with all convenient Speed, proceed to Judgment concerning the Legality of such Seizure; any Law, or Construction of Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where raw Silk or Mohair Yarn, or the Vessel importing the same, shall be seized as forfeited by virtue of any of the recited Acts, the Seizure may not be abandoned, without acquainting the Company of such Intention, and delivering in a Schedule of the Seizure;

and where the Company shall give Bond to indemnify the Officer, the Suit may not be discontinued without their Consent, but be prosecuted to Judgment.

Member of the Company admitted to give Evidence upon the Trial.

XIII. Provided nevertheless, That any Person, being a Member of the said Company, shall be admitted to give Evidence, either for the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs, Relator or Relators, or Defendant or Defendants, upon any Trial, Hearing or Examination, concerning the Condemnation or Legality of the Seizure of the Goods, Ship or Vessel to which any such Bond, so to be given as aforesaid, shall relate; any such Bond, or any Law or Construction of Law, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Publick Act.

XIV. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall be deemed, adjudged and taken to be a Publick Act, and be judicially taken Notice of as such, by all Judges and other Persons whatsoever, without the same being specially pleaded.

General Issue.

XV. And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if any Person or Persons shall, at any Time or Times, be sued or prosecuted for any Thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act, or of any Matter or Thing in this Act contained, such Person or Persons shall and may plead the General Issue, and give the Special Matter in Evidence for his or their Defence; and if, upon the Trial a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs shall become nonsuited, or discontinue his or their Action, then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded, against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs.

Treble Costs.

Continuance of the Act.

XVI. Provided always, That this Act and every Thing contained therein, shall continue and be in Force during the present War with France, and no longer.

'IV. And whereas by an Act made in this present Session of Parliament, it was enacted, That 'an Act made in the thirtieth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act to prohibit, 'for a limited Time, the making of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt or any other Sort 'of Grain, or from any Meal or Flour; which by several subsequent Acts, was continued until the 'twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine; and also so much of 'an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act to continue, for a further Time the 'Prohibition of the Exportation of Corn, Malt, Meal, Flour, Bread, Biscuit and Starch; and also to 'continue for a further Time the Prohibition of the making of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, 'Malt or any other Sort of Grain, or from Meal or Flour; and to prohibit for a limited Time the making 'of Low Wines and Spirits from Bran, as prohibits the making of Low Wines and Spirits from 'Bran; which was to continue until the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and fifty-nine, should be, and the same were thereby continued from the Expiration thereof, 'until the twenty-fourth Day of December one thousand seven hundred and sixty, unless such Continuation of the said Acts, or of any Parts thereof, should be abridged or shortened by any other 'Act to be made in this present Session of Parliament;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and sixty, the Prohibition established and enacted by the said Acts of making, extracting, or distilling Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt or any other Sort of Grain, and from Meal, Flour or Bran, or any Mixture therewith, and all Penalties, Powers and Regulations in the said Acts, so far as the same could or might extend or operate with respect to the making of Low Wines and Spirits from the Materials aforesaid, after the said twenty-first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and sixty, shall cease, and be no longer in Force or Effect; any thing in the said Acts contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

V. Provided always, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That if at any Time or Times after the said twenty-first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and sixty, during the Recess of Parliament, the Price of Wheat shall exceed forty-eight Shillings the Quarter Winchester Measure, for two successive Market Days, in the Port of London, and it shall appear expedient to his Majesty, his Heirs or Successors, to prohibit the making of Low Wines and Spirits from Wheat, Barley, Malt and any other Sort of Grain, and from Meal, Flour and Bran, or any Mixture therewith, it shall and may be lawful to and for his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors, from Time to Time, by his or their Royal Proclamation or Proclamations, to be issued by and with the Advice of his or their Privy Council, or by his or their Order in Council, to be published in the London Gazette, from time to time, to prohibit the making, extracting or distilling of any Kind of Low Wines or Spirits from any Wheat, Barley, Malt, and any other Sort of Grain, and from Meal, Flour and Bran, or any Mixture therewith, for any Time or Times during such Recess, or until twenty Days after the Commencement of the then next Session of Parliament.

'VI. And whereas the Oath appointed by an Act of Parliament made in the sixth Year of his 'Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for repealing an Act for laying a Duty on Compound Waters or Spi-'rits; and for licensing the Retailers thereof; and for determining certain Duties on French Brandy, and 'for granting other Duties in lieu thereof; and for inforcing the Laws for preventing the Running of Bran-'dies, to be taken by the Exporters of Spirits drawn from Corn in Great Britain, has prevented the 'Exportation of such Spirits after they have been rectified;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the said twenty-first Day of April one thousand seven hundred and sixty, upon the Exportation of such rectified Spirits, instead of the Oath aforesaid, in order to intitle the Exporter to the Drawback, Allowance or Bounty on the Exportation thereof, Oath shall or may be made that the same were drawn or made in Great Britain from Corn, without any Mixture with any other Materials, either native or foreign, except what has been necessary for the rectifying thereof; and that the Duties of the said Spirits have been duly paid; and that the said Spirits are to be really and truly exported as Merchandize to be spent beyond the Seas.

'WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the twenty-ninth Year of his present Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the Encouragement of Seamen, and the more speedy and effectual Manning his Majesty's Navy, it was (amongst other Things) enacted, That the Flag Officers, Commanders, and other Officers, Seamen, Marines, and Soldiers on Board every Ship and Vessel of War in his Majesty's Pay, should have the Sole Interest and Property of and in all and every Ship, Vessel, Goods and Merchandizes, which they should take from and after the seventeenth Day of May in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fifty-six, during the Continuance of the War against France (being first adjudged lawful Prize in Manner therein mentioned) to be divided in such Proportions, and after such Manner as his Majesty, his Heirs and Successors should think fit to order and direct by Proclamation or Proclamations thereafter to be issued for those Purposes; and it was by the said Act directed, that all Appraisements and Sales of any Ship or Ships, Goods, Wares or Merchandizes as should be taken by any of his Majesty's Ships of War, should be made by Agents or Persons to be nominated and appointed by the Captors as therein mentioned; and that after the Sale or Sales of such Prize or Prizes as should be taken from the Enemy by any of his Majesty's Ships of War, public Notification should be given by the Persons or Agents appointed, as therein before mentioned, of the Day appointed for the Payment of the several Shares to the Captors; after which public Notification, if any Mens Shares should remain in the Hands of such Persons or Agents, either belonging to such Men as should be run from his Majesty's Service, or which should not be legally demanded within three Years, but then such Share or Shares so remaining in the Persons or Agents Hands, or belonging to such Men as should be run from his Majesty's Service, should go and be paid to the Use of Greenwich Hospital; and by the said Act a certain Bounty was directed to be paid by the Treasurer of his Majesty's Navy, as therein is mentioned, unto the Officers, Seamen, Marines, Soldiers, or others, that should have been actually on Board any of his Majesty's Ship or Ships, or Privateer or Privateers, in any Action where any Ship or Ships of War or Privateers should have been taken from the Enemy, sunk, burnt or otherwise destroyed, since his Majesty's Declaration of War against France, to be divided in Manner, Form and Proportion as by his Majesty's Proclamation should be directed; and it was by the said Act further directed, that the Bill or Bills to be made out (as therein is mentioned) for such Bounty, should be made payable to such Person or Persons as should be authorized and appointed by the Officers or Persons intitled thereto, in such Manner as is therein before directed for the nominating and appointing Agents for Appraisements and Sales to be made as therein before is mentioned; the same to be distributed and divided, by the Person or Persons so authorized and appointed, amongst the Captors, in such Manner, Form and Proportions as is therein before mentioned; and that the several Shares of such Captors, if not legally demanded within three Years after public Notification, and also of such as should be run from his Majesty's Service, should be applied to the Use of the said Hospital: And whereas no Time is limited, or particular Method prescribed by the said Act, for the giving Notifications of the Day appointed for the Payment of the Shares of Prizes, nor is any express Direction given for the Notification of the Day of Payment of the Shares of such Bounty Money as aforesaid; and many Agents have neglected to specify in the Notification by them given in the London Gazette, for Payment of Shares of Prizes condemned in the High Court or other Courts of Admiralty in Great Britain, the Particular Day or Time when such Payments were to commence, whereby it is very difficult, if not impossible, to ascertain the Time when the said Hospital becomes intitled to the unclaimed Shares, by Means whereof the said Hospital cannot have the full Benefit intended by the said recited Act:' For Remedy whereof; Be it enacted by the King's most Excellent Majesty, by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons, in this present Parliament assembled, and by the Authority of the same, That from and after the first Day of September in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and sixty, all Notifications by the said Act required to be given of the Payment of the Shares of Prizes taken, or to be taken from the Enemy

And whereas Doubts have arisen, whether a Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place, 'can serve as a Colonel in the Militia for such County, Riding or Place,' Be it therefore declared and enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That it shall be lawful for the Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place, to act as a Colonel of any Regiment or Battalion of Militia for such County, Riding or Place, for and during such Time or Times as there shall not be any Colonel appointed for the Command of the same Regiment or Battalion; but no Lieutenant shall at any one Time act as a Colonel to more than one Regiment or Battalion.

IX. Provided always, and be it enacted, That where his Majesty's Lieutenant of any County, Riding or Place within the Part of Great Britain aforesaid, shall under the Powers given by this Act, serve as Colonel to any Body of Militia by this Act deemed a Battalion, he shall not, when such Battalion shall be imbodied and in actual Service, be intitled to or receive any other Pay than that of a Lieutenant Colonel; and that no other Person whatsoever shall serve or be intitled to Pay, as a Lieutenant Colonel in such Battalion, during the Time that his Majesty's said Lieutenant shall serve therein as Colonel; any Thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

X. And be it enacted, That where the Number of Officers in any Regiment, Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia, now imbodied and in actual Service, exceeds the Number by this Act intitled to Pay under the Establishment aforesaid, such and so many of them of each respective Rank exceeding the Number so intitled to Pay, shall within two Months after the passing of this Act, be exempted from actual Service, as shall desire so to be; and no Officer so exempted shall be intitled to or receive any Pay as an Officer of the Militia.

So many Officers now embodied and in Service, as exceeds the Number upon the Establishment of Pay, may be exempted from Service as shall desire it;
but they are not to be intitled to Pay;

'XI. And whereas it might conduce to the better Discipling of the Militia, if the Adjutant of 'each Regiment or Battalion was allowed to be a Commissioned Officer in the Regiment or Battalion 'to which he belongs;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the passing of this Act it shall and may be lawful for his Majesty's Lieutenant of any County, Riding, or Place, to grant unto the Adjutant of each Regiment or Battalion a Commission of Lieutenant, or any inferior Commission therein, if he shall think fit, although such Adjutant shall not have the Qualification mentioned in this or any former Act; and such Adjutant shall be and is hereby freed and discharged from all Penalties and Forfeitures for taking and holding such Commission, or acting as a Commissioned Officer in such Regiment or Battalion, without having such Qualification; any thing herein, or any former Act or Acts, to the contrary notwithstanding.

Lieutenants or inferior Commissions may be granted to Adjutants, tho' they want a legal Qualification; and they are indemnified for holding the same.

XII. Provided always, and be it enacted, That if the Number of private Militia Men within any such City or Town as aforesaid, shall not be sufficient to form one Company according to the Establishment aforesaid, then and in such Case, the private Militia Men of such City or Town shall be and be deemed Part of, and shall serve in some Company or Companies of the Militia of the County or Riding to which such City or Town is by an Act made in the thirtieth Year of his Majesty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the better Ordering of the Militia Forces, in the several Counties of that Part of Great Britain called England, united, for the Purposes therein mentioned; and the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices of the Peace of and for the County or Riding to which such City or Town is so united as aforesaid, shall in such Case have full Power and Authority to act within such City or Town with respect to such Matters only as shall relate to the Militia thereof, in the same Manner, and to all intents and Purposes as they are by Law impowered and required to act with respect to the Militia of any other Part of such County, Riding or Place; any thing herein or in any other Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Where the Men of any City or Town shall not be sufficient to form a Company, they are to be deemed Part of, and to serve in, some Company of the County, &c. to which such City or Town is, by 30 Geo. 2. c. 25. united;
and the Deputy Lieutenants and Justices may act therein, as they may do in any County with respect to the Militia thereof.

'XIII. And whereas some Doubt hath arisen whether certain Provisions contained in an Act made 'in this present Session of Parliament, intituled, An Act for punishing Mutiny and Desertion, and for 'the better Payment of the Army and their Quarters, do at any Time, or in any Case, extend to the 'Officers of the Militia and Private Militia Men;' It is hereby declared and enacted, That from the Time that any Regiment Battalion, or Independent Company of Militia shall be drawn out and embodied, until they shall be returned again by Order of their Commanding Officers, to their respective Parishes or Places of Abode, all the Provisions contained in the said Act relating to Officers and Soldiers mustered, listed, or in Pay in his Majesty's Service, do and shall equally extend to, and take Place, in respect of the Officers and private Militia Men of every such Regiment, Battalion or Independant Company of Militia respectively, excepting only as to such Particulars as are or shall be otherwise specially provided for by any Act or Acts of Parliament for regulating the Militia Forces within the Part of Great Britain aforesaid.

All the Provisions in the Mutiny Act are to extend equally to the Militia while drawn out and embodied, as to the King's Regular Forces; except wherein it is otherwise specially provided for by any of the Militia Acts.

'XIV. And whereas by a Clause in an Act made in the last Session of Parliament, intituled, An 'Act for enforcing the Execution of the Laws relating to the Militia; and for removing certain Difficulties, 'and preventing Inconveniences attending or which may attend the same; it is enacted, That one Half 'of the Estates thereby respectively required for the Qualification of the Deputy Lieutenants, and 'of the Captains, Lieutenants, and Ensigns, of the Militia in the Isle of Ely, in the County of 'Cambridge, shall be situate or arising within the said Isle, from which Provision some Inconveni-'ence has been found to arise;' For Remedy whereof, Be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said Clause as requires that one Half of such Estates shall be situate or arising within the said Isle of Ely, be and the same is hereby repealed; and that one Half of the Estates by the said recited Act respectively required for the Qualification of the Deputy Lieutenants, and of the Captains, Lieutenants and Ensigns, of the Militia, in the said Isle of Ely, shall be situate or arising within the said Isle, or some other Part of the County of Cambridge: And in case any Person shall act as a Deputy Lieutenant, or as a Captain, Lieutenant, or Ensign of the Militia, in the said Isle, who shall not be respectively qualified in such Manner as by the said recited Clause (so far as the same is not hereby altered) and by this Act is required, every such Person shall be subject and liable to the same Penalties and Forfeitures as any Person is subject and liable to for acting as a Deputy Lieutenant or Officer of the Militia, within any other County or Place in England, without being qualified according to the Acts of Parliament now in Force relating thereto.

The Clause in the Act 32 Geo. 2. c. 20. enacting, that one Half of the Qualification of Deputy Lieutenants and Officers for the Isle of Ely, shall lie within the said Isle, is repealed; and the same may lie either in Ely or Cambridgeshire;

but the Penalty of acting not being qualified, is the same as within any other County.

'XXIII. And whereas so much of the Act, passed in the eleventh Year of the Reign of his late 'Majesty King GEORGE the First, intituled, An Act for the better regulating of Buildings, and to pre-'vent Mischiefs that may happen by Fire within the weekly Bills of Mortality, and other Places therein 'mentioned, as relates to the pulling down or rebuilding of Partitions or Party Walls between House 'and House, is confined to Cases where one of the Houses is to be erected or built; and it may

'happen that Party Walls within the said City or Liberties thereof, may be so far out of Repair as to 'render it necessary to pull down and rebuild the same, although neither of the adjoining Houses 'require to be new built: And whereas the Workmen appointed by virtue of the said recited Act 'to examine Party Walls, are often equally divided in Opinion about the Necessity of rebuilding 'the same, whereby a Certificate from the major Part of such Workmen, as by the said recited Act 'is required, cannot be obtained, and the Purposes of the said Act, in many Instances, have been 'evaded;' Be it therefore enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid, That so much of the said recited Act, as relates to Party Walls within the said City or Liberties, shall, from and after the passing of this present Act, extend and be construed, deemed and taken to extend, to all Cases whatsoever, within the said City or Liberties, where it is or shall be necessary to pull down and re build any Party Wall, whether either of the adjoining Houses shall or shall not be, or required to be rebuilt or new built: And that from and after the passing of this present Act, in case the major Part of the Workmen apointed, in manner by the said recited Act prescribed, to view the Party Wall of any House or Houses, within the said City or Liberties, intended to be pulled down, shall not, within the Space of one Month next after such Appointment, sign a Certificate in Writing, as by the said Act is required, then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, and they are hereby authorized and required, upon Application to them for that Purpose made, by the Owner or Occupier of either of the Houses between which the Party Wall so proposed to be pulled down shall be, to name and appoint one other able Workman to be added to the Workmen appointed by virtue or in pursuance of the said recited Act: And the Workmen, so appointed by virtue or in pursuance of the said former Act, and of this present Act, or the major Part of them, who shall meet for that Purpose (reasonable Notice having been given to all of them of such intended Meeting) shall view the Party Wall, so proposed to be pulled down: And in case the major Part of such Workmen shall certify in Writing under their Hands, that such Party Wall is defective and bad, and ought to be pulled down, then, and in such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Owner or Occupier of either of the said adjoining Houses to cause such Party Wall to be pulled down and rebuilt, and he or she shall have such Remedy for recovering a Moiety of the Expences thereof, as in and by the said recited Act is given or provided; subject nevertheless to such Appeal and Determination by the Justices of the Peace of and for the said City, as by the same Act is directed.

So much of the recited Act, as relates to Party Walls, is to extend to all Cases where it shall be necessary to pull down and rebuild any Party Wall within the City, or the Liberties thereof; and where a Majority of the Workmen shall refuse to sign a Certificate pursuant to the said Act, the Court, upon Application to them, may appoint another Workman to be added to the Number;

and the Majority certifying thereupon such Wall to be bad, it is to be pulled down, and rebuilt, subject however to the Determination of the Justices, upon Appeal to them.

'XXIV. And whereas it would tend greatly to prevent the Spreading of the fatal Effects of Fire 'within the said City and Liberties, if Party Walls between House and House, within the same, 'were to be made of greater Thickness than is prescribed by the Act, passed in the seventh Year of 'the Reign of her late Majesty Queen ANNE, intituled, An Act for making more effectual an Act, 'made in the sixth Year of her Majesty's Reign, for the better preventing of Mischiefs that may happen by 'Fire; and if no Timbers, except the Timbers of the Roof, Girders, and the Templets under the 'same, were laid into the Party Walls; and if the Ends of the Girders, lying within the said Party Walls, did not exceed one Foot; and if none of the Ends of the Girders in adjoining Houses 'met, or were laid opposite to each other, and the Sides thereof were laid at least nine Inches distant from each other;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That all Party Walls which from and after the Expiration of three Calendar Months next after the passing of this Act, shall be erected or built within the said City or Liberties thereof, shall be two Bricks and a half thick at the least in the Cellar, and two Bricks thick upwards to the Top of the Garret Floor; and that the same shall be built of Stone, or of good, sound, hard, well burnt Bricks, and none other; and also that from and after the Expiration of the said three Calendar Months, no Timbers, except the Timbers of the Roof, Girders and the Templets under the same, shall be laid into the Party Walls erected or built, or to be erected or built within the said City or Liberties; and that the Ends of Girders, lying within such Party Walls, shall not exceed one Foot; and that none of the Ends of the Girders, in adjoining Houses shall meet, or be laid opposite to each other; and that the Sides thereof shall be at least nine Inches distant from each other: And if any Head Builder, Master Bricklayer or Workman, shall erect and build, or cause to be erected and built, any Party Wall within the said City or Liberties, contrary to the Directions, true Intent and Meaning of this Act, or shall use, in the Building thereof, any Bricks, other than good, sound, hard, well burnt Bricks, or shall lay any Timber, in any Party Wall erected or built, or which shall be erected or built, within the said City or Liberties, contrary to the Directions, true Intent and Meaning of this Act; then such Head Builder, Master Bricklayer or Workman, shall for every such Offence forfeit and pay the Sum of fifty Pounds, to be equally divided, one Moiety thereof to the Informer, and the other Moiety to the Poor of the Parish where such Building shall be, and to be levied by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of two or more of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Offender's Goods, upon Conviction upon Oath of one or more credible Witness or Witnesses, or upon his or their own Confession, rendering the Overplus (if any be) to the Owner or Owners: And for want of such Distress, the Offender shall be imprisoned for the Space of six Months, unless the said Penalty shall be sooner paid, by Warrant under the Hands and Seals of the said two Justices, who are hereby required and impowered to issue such Warrant accordingly.

Act 7 Annæ, c. 17. and see 4 Geo. 3. c. 14.

Party Walls, for the future, are to be two Bricks and a half thick in the Cellar, and two Bricks upward; and no Timbers, except those of the Roof, Girders and Templets, are to be laid into the same;

the Girders not to be more than 1 Foot therein, and not to meet, or be opposite to those in the adjoining Houses, and the Sides to be 9 Inches distant from each other; on Penalty of forfeiting 50 l. for every Offence in any of the Premisses; to be divided between the Informer and Poor of the Parish, &c.

'XXV. And whereas several Houses within the said City and Liberties are, in Part, erected or 'built over the Grounds of other Proprietors, or the several Floors, Rooms or Parts thereof, are 'the Property of different Persons, whereby Difficulties and Disputes may arise amongst the said 'several Owners or Proprietors, touching the pulling down and rebuilding the said Premisses, or

'the Party Walls thereof, and such Rebuilding may thereby be prevented or delayed, to the great 'Injury and Inconvenience of such of the Owners as are desirous to rebuild the same;' For Remedy thereof, and in order to prevent the fatal Effects of Fire, be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid,

Where a Part Owner of a House gone to Decay shall be desirous to rebuild the same, but the other Parties shall refuse, &c. to join therein,

That when any House, within the said City or Liberties, in part erected or built over Ground being the Property of some other Person, or whereof the several Floors, Rooms or Parts, are the Property of different Persons, shall be so decayed as to make the Owner of the said Ground, or of any Part of the said House, desirous to rebuild the same, and the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of such House, or of any Part or Parts of the said House, shall not be able or willing to join, or by reason of any legal Disability cannot join in such Rebuilding; then, and in every such Case, it shall and may be lawful to and for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen of the said City, and they are hereby authorized and required, upon Application to them by the Party so desiring to rebuild, to issue their Order to the Sheriffs of London to summon a Jury to be and appear before the said Court, at such Time as the said Court shall appoint, then and there to try whether the Premisses ought to be rebuilt or not, and to cause Notice thereof to be given to or left at such Premisses for such Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers: And if such Jury shall be of Opinion that the Premisses ought to be rebuilt, and any of the said Owners or Occupiers, or some Person or Persons on his, her or their Behalf, shall not in Court upon such Verdict, declare and signify their Consent and Readiness to join in the Expence of such Rebuilding, then such Jury shall be again impanelled and sworn to enquire and fix the Value of the Part or Parts of the said House belonging to the Person or Persons so refusing or neglecting to signify, or being legally disabled from giving his, her or their Consent to such Rebuilding; and upon Payment or Tender of the Value, which shall be awarded by such Jury, to the Party or Parties interested, if he, she or they can be found within the said City or the Liberties thereof, or upon Payment thereof into the Bank of England, in the Name of the Chamberlain of the said City for the Time being, for the Use and Behoof of the Person or Persons intitled thereto, in case he, she or they cannot be found within the said City or Liberties, the Estate and Interest of the Party or Parties, so refusing or neglecting, or being disabled as aforesaid, of, in or to the said Premisses, shall vest in the Person or Persons applying for and obtaining such Award or Verdict; and he, she or they may immediately proceed to pull down and rebuild the said House and Premisses, and any or every Part thereof; and shall from thenceforth hold and enjoy the same for ever, against such Owners and Occupiers, and his, her and their Heirs, Executors, Administrators and Assigns, and all other Persons whatsoever.

the Court upon Application to them, shall order the Premisses to be surveyed by a Jury; and if they shall be of Opinion that the same ought to be rebuilt, and any of the Parties shall not thereupon consent to join in the Expence, the Jury is to fix the Value of such Persons Part;

and upon Payment or Tender of the Money awarded, &c.

the Premisses to vest in the Person obtaining the Verdict, who may proceed to pull down and rebuild the same.

XXVI. Provided always, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Party Wall within the said City or Liberties shall, by virtue of the said recited Act of the eleventh Year of his late Majesty's Reign, and of this present Act, be pulled down and rebuilt agreeable to the Directions of this present Act, by the Owner or Occupier of one of the adjoining Houses, the Expence of such Party Wall shall be estimated and computed at and after the Rate of seven Pounds per Rod; any thing in the said former Act to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

Where a Party Wall shall be pulled down by virtue of Act 11 Geo. I. and rebuilt agreeable to the Directions of this Act, the Expence shall be computed at 7 l. per Rod;

XXVII. Provided also, and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That in all Cases where any Party Wall shall be erected or built, agreeable to the Directions of this present Act, in Execution of any Contract or Contracts entered into with the Builder or Workman before the first Day of March one thousand seven hundred and sixty, the Expence of such Party Wall shall be estimated and computed at and after the Rate of seven Pounds per Rod; any thing in such Contract or Contracts to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding.

and where any Party Wall shall be built agreeable to the Directions of this Act, in Execution of any Contract entered into before 1 March 1760, the Expence shall be computed in like Manner.

'XXVIII. And whereas Houses and Tenements in several Parts of the said City of London, and 'the Liberties thereof, are often, either from litigated Titles thereto, or the Obstinacy or Poverty 'of the Owners or Proprietors thereof, or of Parties interested therein, in so ruinous a Condition, 'that Passengers passing thereby are in Danger of their Lives, from the falling thereof, or of Bricks 'or Timber therefrom; and often are hurt by the falling of the Walls thereof, or of Bricks or 'Timber therefrom;' Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That from and after the twenty-fourth Day of June one thousand seven hundred and sixty, if any Presentment shall be made by any Inquest or Grand Jury in London, that any Houses or Tenements in the said City of London, or the Liberties thereof, are in such ruinous Condition, it shall be lawful for the Court of Mayor and Aldermen, and the said Court is hereby required, on Notice of any such Presentment being made, and on a Copy thereof being laid before them, to cause, with all convenient Speed then afterwards, a proper and sufficient Hoard to be put up to guard all such ruinous Houses and Tenements from the publick Street, and to cause Notice in Writing to be given to the Owner or Owners, or other Person or Persons interested therein, if he, she or they can be found in the said City of London or the Liberties thereof; and if not, to cause such Notice in Writing to be left at the Premisses in such ruinous Condition; to repair the same, or to take down such Buildings, as the Case shall require, within the Space of six Days then next ensuing: And if such Owner or Owners, or other Person or Persons interested in any such Houses or Tenements shall not repair or take down the same, within the said Space of six Days after any such Notice as aforesaid shall be given or left as aforesaid, then, on Proof, on Oath, being made of any such Notice being so given or left, the said Court is hereby authorized and required, with all convenient Speed then afterwards, to order and cause all or so much of such Houses or Tenements as are or shall be in such ruinous Condition, and likely to be dangerous to Passengers passing thereby, to be taken down and secured, in such Manner

When any House or Tenement shall be presented as in a ruinous Condition, the Court shall order a sufficient Hoard to be put up before the same, and give Notice to the Owner to take down or repair such Buildings forthwith;

and if such Order shall not be complied with, the Court may cause such Buildings to be taken down and secured;

Manner as shall from time to time be thought requisite: And all the Charges of putting up every such Hoard, and taking down and securing all or so much of such ruinous Houses or Tenements as shall be necessary to be taken down or made secure, for the Safety of Passengers passing that Way, shall from time to time be paid by the Owner or Owners of such Houses or Tenements, if known, and he, she or they can be met with, within the said City of London, or the Liberties thereof: And if such Owner or Owners shall, on Demand thereof, neglect or refuse to pay the same, then such Charges may be levied, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of any such Justice or Justices of the Peace, by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattles of such Owner or Owners, if any such can be found in the said City of London; and if no such Owner or Owners can be met with in the said City of London, or the Liberties thereof, or sufficient Distress of his, her or their Goods or Chattles cannot be met with, wherefrom such Costs and Charges may be levied; then, and in every such Case, the Person or Persons, who shall at any Time then after occupy any such Houses or Tenements, or the Ground whereon the same stood, is and are hereby required and authorized to pay the same, and to deduct the same out of the Rent thereof: And if he she or they shall neglect or refuse to pay such Charges, then the same shall, by Warrant under the Hand and Seal, or Hands and Seals, of any such Justice or Justices as aforesaid, be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattles of any such Occupier or Occupiers, in Manner as other Distresses and Sales are by this Act directed to be made, together with the Costs of every such Distress and Sale; and the Landlord and Landlords of the Premisses is and are hereby required to allow every such Occupier and Occupiers all such Charges which he, she or they shall so pay, or which shall be recovered by Distress and Sale from him, her or them as aforesaid, upon Receipt of the respective Rent: And every Occupier, paying any such Charges, shall be acquitted and discharged, for so much Money as he, she or they shall so pay, as if the same had been actually paid to such Person or Persons, to whom his, her or their Rent should have been due or payable; and such Money, as the same shall from time to time be received or recovered, shall be paid to the Chamberlain of the said City, and be by him from time to time placed to the Credit of the Cash of the said City of London.

Owners of the Land to maintain the Bank next Peaver's Load; in Default thereof, Commissioners to repair the same, and levy the Charge.

'XIX. And whereas it will be necessary, in order to the draining the said Districts separately, 'that a Bank should be made either on the North West or South East Side of Baldwin's Load: And 'whereas the Lands on the South East Side of the said Load are more hard and firm, and in better 'Condition to erect a Bank upon, than the Lands on the opposite Side of the said Load; and the 'Proprietors of the Lands in the Second District are willing to be at the Expence of erecting and 'maintaining a Bank on the South East Side of the said Load, rather than to have the Waters of 'the aforesaid Grip and Delves thrown upon them by a Bank being made on the opposite Side thereof;' Be it therefore further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Commissioners for the said Second District shall make and maintain a Bank on the South East Side of Baldwin's Load, of sufficient Height and Strength to prevent the Waters (except such Waters as shall overflow by the Breach of Banks maintained by the Corporation of Bedford Level) draining off the Lands in the Second District from flowing into or annoying any of the Lands in the First District: And if the Commissioners for the said Second District shall refuse or neglect to make and sufficiently maintain a Bank on the South East Side of the said Load, then it shall and may be lawful for the Commissioners of the First District to make such a Bank on the North West Side thereof, up to the Hardlands of Mildenhall or Undley Commons, as they shall find necessary; any thing in this Act contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Executors, Administrators and Assigns respectively, shall have the same Power, Rights and Privileges of raising and recovering the several Taxes and Sums of Money payable by the several Owners and Occupiers of the said Fen Lands and Low Grounds, for and in respect of such principal Money and Interest, in case of Default of Payment thereof, as the said Commissioners or their Collectors could have had, in case the said Principal and Interest had been regularly and fully satisfied and paid.

XXII. And be it further enacted, That every Person, to whom any Assignment of the said Rates and Taxes shall be made for securing any such Sum or Sums of Money lent as aforesaid, or who shall be intitled to the Money thereby secured, shall have full Power, from time to time, by Indorsement on the original Grant or Security, without Stamps, to assign or transfer the same to any Person or Persons whomsoever; and such Transfer or Assignment, from and after the Time that the same is entered in a Book to be kept by the said Commissioners for that Purpose (which Entry their Clerk or Treasurer is hereby required to make, upon producing such Assignment and Payment of one Shilling for the said Entry) shall intitle such Assignee or Assignees, his, her or their Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, to the said principal Sum and all the Interest due or to grow due thereupon; and such Assignee or Assignees may, in like Manner, assign again, and so toties quoties, as Occasion shall require, every such Assignment being entered as aforesaid.

XXIV. Provided also, and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid, That the Taxes which are or shall be assessed by virtue of this Act, upon the Lands of Ann Brasset, Widow, now leased, for the Term of her Life, to Thomas Smith, his Executors, Administrators and Assigns, shall, during the said Lease, be paid and borne by the said Thomas Smith, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, and not by the said Ann Brasset; any thing herein before contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

and to be lett to satisfy the same,

Owners to keep Outring or Division Dykes good; and in Default Commissioners to do the same, and recover the Charges.

XXVI. And be it further enacted, That if the Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers of any of the said Fen Lands or Low Grounds, to which any leading Outring or Division Dyke doth or shall belong, hath or have filled up, or shall fill up, or make any Way over the same, without laying a sufficient Tunnel under it, or shall neglect or refuse sufficiently to rode, scour, cleanse, open or repair such leading Outring or Division Dyke, after twenty-one Days Notice given to him, her or them for that Purpose by the respective Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers for the Time being, appointed by virtue of this Act; then it shall be lawful for such Collector or Collectors, Receiver or Receivers, to cause such Dyke to be roded, scoured and cleansed in a sufficient Manner; and where there is not a sufficient Tunnel under such Ways, to cause those Ways to be taken up, and made so wide and deep as the Dyke ought to be; and by Warrant or Precept under the Hands and Seals of seven or more of the said Commissioners (which Warrant or Precept such Commissioners, or any seven or more of them, in their respective Districts or Divisions, are hereby impowered and required, from time to time, to make as Occasion shall require) to levy the Charge thereof upon the Goods and Chattels of such Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, by Distress and Sale of his, her or their Goods and Chattles upon the Ground and Premisses to which such Dyke or Dykes, Way or Ways, doth or do, or shall respectively belong (over and above the other Rates and Taxes chargeable or to be charged upon the same Ground and Premisses by virtue of this Act) rendering the Overplus (if any) to such Owner or Owners, Occupier or Occupiers, when demanded, after all Charges paid.

Recital of Acts 15 & 20 Car. 2. c. 17. relating to Bedford Level Corporation, &c.

' XXXVII. And whereas by the ſaid Act of the fifteenth Year of King CHARLES the Second, ' it was, among other Things enacted, That the Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators of the ſaid ' Great Level ſhould have Power to lay Taxes upon the ninety-five thouſand Acres of Land, al- ' loted as a Recompence for the draining of the ſaid Great Level, for the Support, Maintenance ' and Preſervation of the ſaid Great Level, and to levy the ſame, with Penalties for Nonpayment; ' and that the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators ſhould have Power to ſell ſo much of ſuch ' Parts and Proportions of the ſaid ninety-five thouſand Acres, upon which any Tax ſhould be in ' Arrear, or Penalties, in ſuch Proportion as the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators ſhould ' judge to be ſufficient to raiſe ſuch Taxes and Penalties: And whereas ſeveral Parcels of the ſaid ' ninety-five thouſand Acres of Land were, at different Times, put up to Sale, in purſuance and ' according to the Directions of the before recited Act of the fifteenth of King CHARLES the Se- ' cond, and of one other Act paſſed in the twentieth Year of the ſaid King CHARLES the Second, ' intituled, An Act for the taxing and aſſeſſing of the Lands of the Adventurers within the Great Level of ' the Fens, in order to raiſe the Taxes and Penalties in Arrear for and in reſpect of the ſaid Lands; but the ' ſame not being thought worth the Taxes and Penalties due thereon, ſuch Lands could not be ſold, ' ſo as to raiſe ſuch Penalties and Taxes; and the ſaid Governor, Bailiffs and Conſervators, having

'directed their Officers, from time to time, to bid for such Lands as could not be sold for the 'Amount of the Taxes and Penalties respectively due thereon, they the said Officers became the 'Purchasers of such Lands, and have either conveyed the same to the said Governor, Bailiffs and 'Commonalty, or declared such Purchases to have been made in Trust for the said Corporation, 'and the Lands so purchased remain vested in the said Corporation, and are called Invested Lands, 'and have been annually rated and assessed to the Taxes laid upon the said ninety-five thousand 'Acres, according to their respective Proportions, in pursuance of the said Acts of the fifteenth and 'twentieth of King CHARLES the Second; but such Taxes not having been raised or paid, the 'said Corporation have, from time to time, let such Invested Lands, or such Parts of them as they 'could find Tenants for, at such Rents as could be procured for the same; but the Profits arising 'from the Lands so lett have been very small and inconsiderable, and much less than the Taxes 'with which such Lands have been assessed: And whereas the said Corporation have agreed with 'Sir Simeon Stuart, of Harteley in the County of Southampton, Baronet, for the Sale of Part of the 'said Invested Lands, which have been at the Desire of the said Sir Simeon Stuart left out of the 'first District herein before described, for the Sum of one hundred Pounds, discharged of all Ar-'rears of Taxes assessed thereon, by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and twentieth Years of 'King CHARLES the Second; but subject to future Taxes, to be assessed by virtue of the said Acts: 'And whereas it will be for the Benefit of the said Corporation that the Invested Lands within the 'said first District should be sold for the best Price that can be gotten for the same, discharged of all 'Arrears of Taxes assessed or to be assessed thereon, by virtue of the said Acts of the fifteenth and 'twentieth Years of King CHARLES the Second, before the said Lands shall be sold; but subject 'nevertheless, in like Manner as the rest of the said ninety-five thousand Acres, to the Taxes to be 'assessed by virtue of the said Acts, after the said Lands shall be so sold; and that in the mean 'Time, and until such Lands can be drained and sold, the said Corporation should be enabled to pay 'the Rates and Taxes to be assessed by virtue of this Act upon the said Lands, for draining the 'same;' Be it therefore further enacted, That the Receiver for the Time being of the said Corporation shall, out of the Taxes and Revenues of the South and Middle Levels (Part of the said Great Level) pay upon Demand, to the Collector or Collectors, to be appointed by the Commissioners for the said first District, all such Rates and Taxes as shall be charged by virtue of this Act upon the said Invested Lands, or any Part thereof, until the same shall be sold as herein after is directed; and such Receiver shall be and he is hereby absolutely discharged and indemnified of and for the Sums so by him paid to the said Collector or Collectors, as if such Sum had been paid to and by the Order and Direction of the said Corporation.
